Dear Sir/Madam

This is a letter motivating why you should hire me for this position.

To start off I am an honest and loyal person. I am highly motivated to make something of my life and achieve all my desires. I am punctual and responsible. I always believe in doing the right thing. I never had a problem with working extra hours and I absolutely love working under pressure. In my spare time I play cricket for Goodwood Northerns Cricket club and I am a keen artist as I paint.

Just to give one a back ground as to where I come from, I was born into a family business. Since the young age of 9 I worked in the family business. By the time I was 15 I was running my own part time helium balloon delivery service, I had 2 staff members under me as well as expenses at the end of each month. Thus I am business orientated. Due to unforeseen circumstances the business had to close down. This was well into my final year at high school, which got me thinking about my future.

I have received mentorship from my uncles who are attorneys and this has given me unique insight and understanding of the legal world. Needless to say, this is what pushed me into the legal field. I have managed to complete my LLB degree within four years while it has not been easy, I worked diligently to complete the degree timeously. I am extremely passionate about the law and it is truly a part of me, there is no other field I would like to be in.

All of the above has rounded me into a competent individual for a candidate attorney position. Hiring me into your work place would not mean you hiring some 'kid fresh out of university.' You would be hiring a mature individual; one who is accustomed to responsibility.

Yours Sincerely
Ozair Hanware

FACULTY OF LAW

28 March 2017

Ozair Hanware

It is with pleasure that I can attest to the academic and personality attributes of Mr. Hanware.

Ozair is well known in the Law Faculty, where he has been a registered student since 2013. I had the opportunity to appreciate Ozair's abilities as a scholar in his final year of undergraduate study, when he enrolled for the elective Regional Integration 431, lectured by myself. Evaluation of the course is conducted by means of assignments, as well as formal tests and examinations. Ozair illustrated a clear and informed knowledge regarding this topic and obtained a sound mark of 78% for the module. Overall Ozair is a hardworking and dedicated scholar. In the undertaking of his studying responsibilities, he has shown the ability to diligently work hard and to maximize his learning experience. Ozair will graduate in April 2017.

It is without hesitation that I can recommend Mr. Hanware to register his articles as a candidate attorney at the relevant Law Society or whatever else he selects to do.

Should there be need for more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
