

DANNI HOFMEYR

Letter of Motivation

I am a motivated law graduate currently working as a Legal Researcher at one of South Africa's prominent advocacy and human rights organisations, Ndifuna Ukwazi. I am now pursuing admission as an attorney and wish to apply for a candidate attorney position at Schindlers Attorneys for 2014.

After graduating with a BCom LLB from Stellenbosch University in 2012, I joined Ndifuna Ukwazi, a Cape Town-based organisation contributing to a variety of existing social justice campaigns. Aside from conducting extensive legal research, I have served as Coordinator of the Campaign for Safe Communities. This campaign was born out of the recently established O'Regan/Pikoli commission into Khayelitsha policing. Additionally, I edit and coordinate the People's Law Journal, an annual publication promoting public access and understanding of landmark rulings and far reaching legal issues.

As a student I held a number of leadership positions, including serving as chairperson of Lesbigay Stellenbosch, a student-run LGBTI advocacy organisation; as executive committee member of Stellenbosch University MOJO week, a week-long series of event stimulating critical discourse on important social issues; as Course Facilitator for the Centre for Student Leadership, also at Stellenbosch University; and as a member of the Maties RAG Executive Committee. I also actively engaged in community volunteering, including regular tutorial of high school learners in Khayamandi, an informal settlement on the outskirts of Stellenbosch; and mentoring 'First Generation' students.

I achieved numerous subject distinctions as a law student, including receiving the class medal for the law module, International Protection of Human Rights and being awarded a Golden Key Membership for achieving in the top fifteen per cent of my degree. My passion for the law leads me to understand all aspects of a legal issue presented to me. I am thorough, analytical, diligent, meticulous and organised.

One's articles are the period during which you learn the most about practicing law. At Schindlers Attorneys I would be presented with complex legal problems, be exposed to lawyers of the highest calibre, be working in a productive, challenging, professional and innovative environment, and able to gain experience in a number of legal fields – particularly litigation, corporate and tax law.

I thrive in high pressure and challenging environments. My understanding of complex legal issues and analytical and critical thinking skills make me a valuable member to any team. I hope to have the opportunity to contribute to the success and growth of Schindlers Attorneys.

Sincerely,

Dan Hofmeyr

TERTIARY EDUCATION

LLB (2012): Stellenbosch University, South Africa

BCom Law (2010): Stellenbosch University, South Africa

WORK EXPERIENCE

Legal Researcher: Ndifuna Ukwazi (January 2013 – present)

I provide legal advice to Ndifuna Ukwazi and its partner organisations (Social Justice Coalition, Equal Education, My Vote Counts, the Campaign for Safe Communities) on a number of constitutional issues. I have specifically been involved in the O'Regan/Pikoli Commission of Inquiry into policing in Khayelitsha. The Minister of Police has unsuccessfully attempted to interdict the Commission through the High Court, and his appeal will be heard at the Constitutional Court later this year.

I am conducting research on costs de bonis propriis orders against public officials, its impact on the separation of powers and the role of judges and the judiciary for my annual research project.

I am the coordinator of the editorial team for the Peoples Law Journal, a journal that aims to make legal knowledge understandable and accessible to the general public. It publishes articles that outline the social, political and historical aspects of landmark cases in South Africa. In addition to coordinating the content, publishing and distribution of the Journal, I also write and translate pieces for the Journal.

The Campaign for Safe Communities is a network of organisations with the collective goal of creating and sustaining safe communities. Originally I conducted the legal research for the Campaign, but was soon seconded to a Coordinator position for the Campaign. As the coordinator I liaised with 8 organisations and coordinated their activities to ensure that the objects of the Campaign were being met. In this position I assisted in drafting memoranda delivered to Parliament, organised the Campaign's launch, a seminar on Police Custody and Pre-Trial Detention, drafting a submission to the African Commission, among other things.

Ndifuna Ukwazi has a fellowship programme in which the fellows complete courses on politics, law and society. I developed and taught courses on Constitutional Law, International Law and History.

Founder: PayDay It Forward (February 2013 – Present)

I founded PayDay It Forward soon after I started working. This is a project that I commit to in my free time. It is an online initiative that encourages individuals to donate money to an organisation every pay day. Every month I would find an organisation that I believe is reliable, honest, needed and needy. I contact the organisation, do research on their work and write up a blog post on them. This is then followed by a social media campaign to encourage donations.

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP AND ACHIEVEMENTS

Golden Key International Honour Society (2007)

I was awarded a Golden Key membership for achieving in the top 15% of my degree academically.

Team Leader, First Generation Camp (2012)

I acted as a mentor for a group of 15 first generation students, providing them with personal advice and general guidance.

Tutor, Funda Fundisa Society (2008 – 2009)

I tutored accounting at Khayamandi High School for two years.

Chairperson, Lesbian Student Society, Stellenbosch University (2012)

As chairperson I was responsible for funding, managing the executive committee, compiling an annual report, acting as a spokesperson, and to receive and deal with complaints of discrimination on campus.

Executive Committee, Maties RAG, Stellenbosch University (2010-2011)

Maties RAG was the first year welcoming programme of Stellenbosch University which raised money for Maties Community Service. I was tasked with organising the Maties RAG Float Procession and the Buddy Responsible Drinking campaign.

Executive Committee, MOJO Week, Stellenbosch University (2011-2012)

MOJO Week aims to facilitate critical discourse on campus around a variety of themes. I assisted in organising public art exhibitions, a film festival, seminars, workshops and awareness campaigns.

Facilitator for Leadership, Critical Thinking and Transformation Training (2011-2012)

I was trained to facilitate workshops that prepare students for leadership positions.

Letter of Recommendation: Daniel Hofmeyr

Daniel Hofmeyr has been employed as a Junior Legal Researcher at Ndifuna Ukwazi since January 2013. In April 2013, Dan was seconded to the Social Justice Coalition (SJC) to coordinate the Campaign for Safe Communities because of her skills as a researcher and communicator. I have worked with her in both capacities.

Over a short period of time, Dan has demonstrated that she is dedicated hard-working and determined. She has a good grasp of law and research techniques which enables her to produce good quality work within tight deadlines. Her written work (including legal opinions and newspaper articles) clearly demonstrates her sound analytical and critical thinking skills.

In addition to Dan's research skills she was tasked to develop materials and teach a module in the "Politics, Law and Society" course for the Ndifuna Ukwazi Fellowship program. She clearly demonstrated her ability to critically analyse case law and constitutional rights. She is able to clearly communicate to the fellows the legal and historical aspects.

Dan contributes positively to the working environment and is constantly assisting in the development of the organisation. She quickly proved herself to be organised, efficient and hard-working and thus also served as the interim Coordinator for the Campaign for Safe Communities. As the interim Coordinator she communicated with several organisations supporting the campaign and coordinated the activities of these organisations to ensure that the Campaign moves forward. In this position she demonstrated her ability to work well whilst under immense pressure, her ability to identify work that needs to be done and her ability to lead and work with a diverse group of people. She organised a number of events, including the launch which over 1300 people attended.

Dan is a great worker. I believe that Daniel will make a success of any endeavor she undertakes and I have faith in her abilities. She has demonstrated that she has a bright and enquiring mind and a willingness to go over and above what is expected of her.

Yours faithfully

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

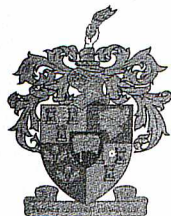

To whom it may concern,

Daniel Hofmeyr (student number 70046) was an exchange student in Turku/Åbo, Finland for the autumn term of 2012. She has asked me to write a recommendation letter for her, which I am very happy to do. I got to know Daniel being one of her three teachers on the course International Protection of Human Rights which she participated in and successfully completed with an over all course grade of 5/5. The course consists of appr. 40 hours of lectures and working group exercises as well as three individual assignments. Daniel was very active in the class and contributed well to the discussions. She wrote good and solid answers in the individual assignments as well as in the exam. The exam which has proved to be a difficult for many students, covers all the lecture materials and the course book International Protection of Human Rights: A textbook (ed. Catarina Krause and Martin Scheinin) which has 721 pages and goes deep into the subject. The fact that Daniel completed the course with the highest mark shows that she is a very good student who is willing to work hard to achieve good results. I can warmly recommend him for further studies on master's level.
