Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: APPLICATION FOR CANDIDATE ATTORNEY POSITION

I have recently completed my studies and wish to commence my articles of clerkship.

I have completed a LLB degree and the opportunity to also complete a Bachelor of Commerce in Economics and Law, the combination of which I believe will assist me in providing clients the competitive advantage when dealing with commercial and corporate law issues.

I am currently attending the School for Legal Practice in the evenings, with the intention of writing the board exams in August 2012. I am available to start working immediately whilst I am completing the School for Legal Practice course and I am willing to go the extra mile to ensure that I will be successful in the position should I be appointed. I have attached my CV for your perusal.

Thank you in advance for the time taken in perusing my CV and I hope to have a favourable reply soon.

Yours faithfully

Kevin G. Cato

CURRICULUM VITAE

PROFILE:

Character: I have a warm and friendly disposition, coupled with a respectful nature. I am polite, poised and confident, and tend to see opportunities rather than difficulties.

Values: As a result of my upbringing, I have an excellent set of values. My values include integrity, honesty, punctuality and reliability. My integrity and honesty is clearly reflected in the Certificate of Conduct provided by the tertiary institution I attended and is annexed herewith.

Why me? Unlike other prospective CA's, I have completed both a LLB and Bcomm degree. I firmly believe that the combination of these degrees will give me the 'edge' in dealing with legal issues relating to commercial and corporate law, which will ultimately provide clients with the competitive advantage they seek when approaching your firm. Apart from my qualifications, I am also willing and very eager to learn. Considering all of the above, I believe that I can be a very productive and resourceful addition to your firm.

Testimonial: Mr Kevin Cato

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have had the pleasure of knowing Kevin for approximately two years. In terms of our relationship, I would classify him as my "prospective Son-in-Law"

I find him to be a very sensible young man who is polite, well-mannered and level headed. It is clear that he has been extremely well brought up.

I am sure that he will make an excellent contribution to any company who would seek to employ him.

Yours Sincerely

Norman T Murison
