Employment History and Work Experience

1. Researcher for Richard Calland (2020 – present)

Currently, I am doing research on Parliament's constitutional duties to maintain oversight and hold the executive to account. The research I have done will be used by Richard Calland for evidence before the Zondo Commission.

2. Democratic Governance & Rights Unit (DGRU) (2020 – present)

At the moment, I am doing research on candidates who are being considered for appointment by the Judicial Service Commission. I have to prepare briefs on candidates which detail their CV, provide summaries of their noteworthy judgments, any articles they have written or any media attention of them.

3. Ebi's Law Tutoring (2018)

I worked part-time as a tutor of property law in the second semester of 2018. My responsibilities included making notes on the materials for the students and then presenting and explaining the relevant concepts and judgments to them.

4. KLA Marketing Research (July 2017)

I did vacation work as a data analyst for KLA, where I analysed and coded reviews by customers of Standard Bank, to give Standard Bank an indication as to what aspects of their services are problematic and that needed to be improved.

5. Education and Sustainability Leadership Programme at United World Colleges (UWC) Singapore (March 2015)

I participated as a volunteer in a conference organised by UWC Singapore and the Cambridge Institute for Sustainable Leadership (CISL) in Singapore. The objective of the conference was to bring together students and educators together to facilitate meaningful engagement regarding changes that can be made in education to improve the environmental impact of schools. The objectives that came from the conference were put into practice at UWC Singapore and a few other educational facilities throughout South-East Asia.

6. Green Shoots International School (April 2015)

Having met Catherine McKinely and Sue-Lyn Ryan at the UWC conference they invited my friend and I who were travelling through South-East Asia at the time, to do volunteer work at their school in Hoi Ann in Vietnam. They had recently started up their school and wanted us to provide insight into our school experience, and to give advice to students on high school life.

7. Paul Goodbun's Home Renovation (June 2015)

I worked as a handyman in Guilford, Surrey in the United Kingdom. My responsibilities included painting, sanding and varnishing. This experience has helped me get odd jobs restoring furniture to earn extra money.

8. WWOOF Italia Castello di Potentino (August-October 2015)

Worldwide Working on Organic Farms (WWOOF) is a volunteering project where volunteers (or WWOOFers as they are known) work on organic farms around the world in exchange for board and lodging. I worked on an Italian wine farm named Castello di Potentino in Tuscany, which is managed by vintner Charlotte Horton, who has introduced traditional Burgundy grown grapes to Italy. I helped prepare the vines for harvest, harvested all the grapes and aided in the process of producing wine.

In addition, the farm operates as a Bed and Breakfast and throughout my stay I worked at three weddings, a 50th birthday and helped prepare the meals for the guests.

Leadership Positions

1. School Prefect (2014)

I was a school prefect at Westerford High School which entailed the responsibility of communication between staff and students, where I, as part of the prefect body, represented and argued for student concerns and wishes.

2. Member of Cultural Co-ordinating Council Executive Committee (CCC) (2014)

As a member of the CCC, I was charged with the responsibility of co-ordinating and disciplining the various cultural societies at Westerford High School.

3. Member of the History & Current Affairs Society (HCA) (2011-2014)

As a member of HCA I advertised and organised events and made sure that the notice board was up to date with current affairs.

4. Member of Pro-Bono Football Management (2018)

I helped organise the football team and fixtures in the UCT Internal Soccer League.

Interests

1. Vera School for learners for Autism (2014)

I was part of an outreach programme that went to visit the Vera School to interact with the children.

2. Pro-Bono Football Club (2016 - present)

I am member of the UCT Law Faculty's football team, which plays in the UCT social league.

3. King's Boxing Gym (2018 – present)

I am a trainee of King's Boxing Gym. I chose this gym because it is an old-style gym, but they also have an outreach programme to train young kids in the area.

4. Spin Doctor's Cricket Club (2011 – present)

I am a member of the Spin Doctor's Cricket Club, which is a social league cricket team started by Lawson Naidoo and Richard Calland.

To whom it may concern,

RE: REFERENCE FOR LIAM MURPHY

In my capacity as professor in the Department of Private Law at the University of Cape Town, I have known Liam Murphy since July 2018 when he started attending the second half of the Law of Contract course, for which I am responsible. He also did his moot in Contract. He also currently attends the Commercial Transactions Law course, for which I am partly responsible.

Mr Murphy obtained 70% for the Law of Contract, which was well above average. He fared even better in a number of his other subjects, some with marks above 80% and was placed on the Dean's Merit List for two years. His performance in the oral argument in the moot was excellent – one of the best in the class. He obtained 80% for his oral argument and 70% for his team's heads of argument. His oral argument in the moot started with a good summary of submissions. He had good diction and retained eye contact with the moot judges throughout. He was confident and engaging, generally answered questions well and had a clear idea of his case. He also showed good knowledge of the case law for and against his client and addressed contentions made by the defendants well. He has the ability to think on his feet and to express his thoughts clearly. He is highly intelligent and hard-working and shows great promise to excel in his chosen field.

He attended lectures and tutorials faithfully and often gave valuable input. He has been one of the most vocal students in the class, often asking pertinent questions and commenting critically and persuasively on the current law. He was well prepared for lectures. Therefore, it has been a real pleasure to have him in my class. He is clearly concerned with achieving success in whatever he undertakes.

Mr Murphy has obtained valuable work experience in various part-time and temporary jobs.

On a personal level, Mr Murphy has struck me as a very courteous, friendly, helpful and well-rounded person who maintains excellent personal relationships with his peers and members of the faculty and as someone who is at ease and composed in any situation.

I recommend him for appointment to any position for which he may qualify.

Yours sincerely

To the Selection Committee:
Candidate Attorneys

21 May 2019

To Whom It May Concern:

Dear Sir/Madam,

Re Liam Murphy

I write in support of the application by Liam Murphy for a position as a candidate attorney with your firm.

I have known Liam for many years and he is a rare young person in that he always has a very clear picture of what he wants to achieve, and why, and a single-minded determination to reach his goal. I know that he has thought carefully about what would be the best next step in his legal career, and I support his decision to seek articles and to begin building his career as a practicing lawyer.

As his academic script shows, Liam is an excellent student who always strives to get the best out of himself. I taught him Constitutional Law a couple of years ago, and he was always one of the most engaged members of the class, often peppering me with tricky questions at the end of a lecture and demonstrating a fine understanding of the nuances of the subject as well as the broader socio-economic and political context.

I was greatly impressed by his evident intellectual curiosity and his natural predilection towards critical thinking, as well as his diligence and determination to succeed.

I can also attest to Liam's maturity and wider intellectual outlook and interests. In 2015 he successfully applied to be a part of the inaugural, pilot Education and Sustainability Leadership programme that I convened in Singapore. I well remember how on the last day of the programme, that was attended by educational policy-makers and school principals and teachers from around the world, his was the strongest and clearest 'youth' voice in the room. Persistently yet politely, he asked for greater ambition in the commitments that were being made. He cares deeply about the planet and about people, and understands well the perils to both that are poised on the horizon.

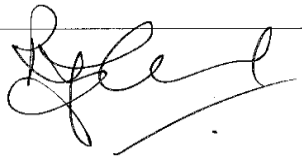

Liam is also a person of integrity and compassion. I submit that these kind of personal attributes should not be discounted when considering potential candidate attorneys. Liam is gentle and kind, instinctively considerate of the feelings of others; and is open-minded to the 'other' and inherently comfortable with diversity and difference in culture and worldview. So I am confident in saying that he will not only be a good 'team player', but will add great value to your future echelon of young lawyers.

Liam's energy, as well as his vibrant sense of humour, will ensure that he is an asset to you. In short, I commend him wholeheartedly to you, and without any reservation. He is a very deserving candidate.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if I can be of any further assistance in respect of Liam's application.

Yours faithfully,
